2. Employment history

- 03/2020 – present Postdoctoral researcher - Department of Human Geography, Stockholm University
My research areas include residential mobility, segregation, neighbourhood dynamics and migrant integration. I mainly employ quantitative research methodologies and use Swedish register data. Besides research, I am involved in teaching at a 20% level.
- 05/2013 – 03/2020 PhD Candidate - Department of Human Geography, Stockholm University
My PhD dissertation explored the relationship between spatial mobility and socioeconomic integration for international migrants in Sweden. It applied quantitative analyses on Swedish longitudinal register data. Besides research, I also performed teaching and administrative tasks.
- 12/2012 – 04/2013 Research assistant - Department of Human Geography, Stockholm University
I carried out an interview study on labour trafficking and labour exploitation in Sweden, focusing on the restaurant and berry picking sectors, as parts of the EC-funded Adstringo project in the Baltic Sea region.
- 09/2012 – 11/2012 Research assistant - School of Global Studies, University of Gothenburg
I carried out field research in Bosnia and Herzegovina and in Stockholm as part of the Sida-funded project 'The new developers? Circular migrants in policy and practice'.
- 06/2011 – 08/2011 Intern - International Organization for Migration (IOM), Sarajevo
I analyzed statistical data from a survey on the diaspora and the Bosnian labour market.
- 03/2011 – 06/2011 Intern - Nordic Africa Institute (NAI), Uppsala
I did a literature study on housing issues in Sub-Saharan Africa.
- 12/2008 – 11/2010 Policy assistant – Eurostep (NGO network), Brussels
Among other tasks, I coordinated the preparation of two European Social Watch reports (on migration and development and report on social exclusion) and monitored the debates and processes of the EU's cooperation with developing countries.
- 10/2008 – 11/2008 Intern – Centre Tricontinental (Cetri, NGO), Louvain-la-Neuve
I did research and translation work for the quarterly publication 'Alternatives Sud' focusing on social movements in Africa, Latin America and Asia.
